The Orpheum.

There will be an entire change of program at the Orpheum tonight in the shape of farce comedy by Hogan's clever company, entitled "A Trip to Honolulu," which will make the entire evening's entertainment. Mr. Hogan and Mr. Chenault will play the leading male parts, Willie Wayside and Jim Flimflam respectively. Miss Carrie Carter will play the part of Miss Bretonia which gives her innumerable opportunities to show her charms and talents; Miss Vincent Bradley will be cast as Mrs. Brown, the leading female role. With the four mentioned artists responsible for the leading characters the success of the performance is already assured.

"A Trip to Honolulu" has been written especially for this occasion by Mr.
Hogan and Miss Bradley and is bubbling over with good music and com-icalities. The scenes are laid in and about Honolulu. Of course a trip to Waikiki must be substituted for the invariable trip to Coney Island which all New York farce comedies contain.
Mr. Hogan as Willie Wayside is a coon who occurred accidentally and to be sure causes any amount of amusement. To a New York and Chicago audience it is an old story to see a play written around their native city but to Honoluluites this will be a novelty and no doubt will cause a great deal of speculation. However, at the hands of such clever people there need be no fear of a disappointment.

Monument to Volunteers.

San Francisco, March 8.—The Executive Committee of the Citizens' Reception Committee appointed to welcome and provide for soldiers returning from Manila held a meeting tonight. It was resolved that a monument be erected to the memory of the California volunteers in the army and navy, who died in the service of the United States in the Spanish-American war and the battles which grew out of it, with the name of each soldier and sailor inscribed thereon, the monument to be erected on some spot in Golden Gate Park, and not to cost over $25,000.
It was stated that the committee had expended about $35,000 in the relief of the soldiers of the Spanish-American war, and it was resolved that the balance left on hand be turned over to the ladies of the Red Cross Society, asking them to apply the money for the benefit of California soldiers and sailors.

Miss Josephine T. Molloy, cashier of the deposit bank established by the committee for the benefit of the returned soldiers, reported that $37,211 had been received, all of which had been withdrawn.

France and the War.

Paris, March 15.—The Minister of Foreign Affairs, M. Delcasse, in the Senate today, replying to a question regarding the intentions of the Government of France, respecting events in South Africa, said the Presidents of the two republics had solicited the intervention of the powers. But, he added in the presence of the telegrams exchanged between the British Government and the two republics, it appeared that the intervention of the powers had become almost impossible.
The Minister then denied that France had refused to join Russia, in making a friendly suggestion in the direction of peace.
